Description

The unique and eye-catching design of the Woodside Wooden Insect/Bee House immediately creates a sense of fun and whimsy in any garden setting. This beautiful Garden Nest box is specifically designed to encourage bug life to come and rest after a long day's work pollinating and encouraging growth in your garden.

This Natural Bee house will attract bees, butterflies, ladybirds, and an array of other lovely insects into your garden, creating a balanced and gentle ecosystem for your plant life, and actively encouraging growth. The lengthy tunnels in the design are ideal for nesting bees and will provide them fantastic cover from the elements.

Made from entirely natural elements, this wooden bug hotel features lovely pine wood, bamboo, and pine cones, delivering a consistently natural feel for your garden space. Hanging this piece in your garden is a breeze, as a hanging metal mount plate is included with the Nest box.
