Summary of the acceptability of the proposal

The site relates to a semi-detached dwelling located within the settlement boundaries. Accordingly, the principle of development is considered to be acceptable subject to compliance with other planning policies and material planning considerations.

The proposal would be acceptable in principle and no concerns are raised at this stage with respect to visual and residential amenity or parking and highway safety.

Final comments

The proposal would be acceptable in principle and no concerns are raised at this stage with respect to visual and residential amenity or parking and highway safety.

I trust that the above information is of assistance. However, I must note that the advice given in this response represents an informal opinion, provided in accordance with the Council's Planning Pre-Application Service. In particular, it is emphasised that while this pre-application advice will be carefully considered in reaching a decision or recommendation on an application, the final decision on any application that you may make can only be taken after we have consulted local people, statutory consultees and any other interested party. It does not therefore prejudice any decision which the Local Planning Authority may make should an application be submitted.
